Mi muy querida amiga.
Te deseo todo genero de felicidades
Dios te la merezca porque siempre eras tan simpatica y agradable.
Espero verte muchas veces en el futuro y espero que seas por mi.
Tu amiga por mi.

It is well for all good things to be united and it is through unity that parent, teacher, and student working together combine to produce the result so much to be admired: Young Catholic womanhood.

To Francis Xavier

Blind, they toiled unaware;

The teeming ebbing, endless mass

Their ceaseless labor, ever futile

Until the Light rose in the East.

He came alone, this torch-bearer,

Across the raging, turbulent seas,

Through the sweltering, tropical jungle.

Beyond the highest mountains

The mighty bearer strode.

To India, China, and Japan,

He came, that looking they might see;

And by his light they saw.

On Malacca, the bearer fell

Yet —

The light will burn forever.

There were several other calls that night. First thing the next day, as soon as school was out, Susan and Carol checked the address on the scrap of paper. It was only too obvious from the poor surroundings that everything in the letter was true. Only too sadly true.

For the next few weeks a busy group of Xavier Seniors and Juniors demonstrated that the younger generation was neither "lost" nor "beat". That they could be really "neat" when the need presented itself. Girls who usually waited for mother to press their blouses and sew buttons on their uniforms, now busily went about gathering clothes; washing, ironing and repairing dresses, shirts and trousers. Toys, too. Dolls had new dresses and bonnets and even trains and trucks glistened with a fresh coat of paint.

Gifts And Self Sacrifice Prov Xavier Girls Have Large He

By PAT CALVANO

There was no stamp on the letter—stamps were four cents each. Just a note to the postman in a childish scrawl "Please take this letter to Santa." So Tom Doyle, who was a very busy man, especially around Christmas time, took the letter home to his daughter and tossed it on her lap.

She glanced at the smudged and rather dirty envelope. "Do I look like Santa? I got no beard?" she quipped without bothering to open it.

Susan opened the envelope and took out the "letter" a torn piece of paper covered with a

One of the innovations of the school year at Xavier was the establishment of a Student court for the purpose of handling minor disciplinary cases. We at Xavier were very proud of the trust placed in us, and considered it no small one.

Sister Mary Walter, BVM was moderator and advisor to the group. Susan Palmer, student body president, acted as judge, and Susan Barstis, treasurer, was the bailiff. Other members of the student council compose the jury.

KATHY

OUR KATHY

It's hard to find a good definition of the word friend, and now-a-days it's even harder to find a person who is a real and true friend. Kathy was my friend. I never have gone to her home and she had never come to mine. We didn't call each other on the phone much—except maybe I'd give her the asignments when she was absent . . . but she was my friend . . . my true friend.

Kathy was everyone's friend. Whenever your world seemed to be a little damp and things weren't going right, all you had to do was talk to Kathy and her glow would melt right through and chase the gloom away. Her smile and joy were sincere and a chuckle was either on her lips or on its way up.

Today I went to her locker, number 113, I know, because I gave it to her. There were three books in it, also a spiral. There was a dress, Oh, what a wizard she was with a needle. . . . Then, in a corner, there was her beanie. How often had she worn that when she talked with her God! How very close she is to Him, now.

How can I say what Kathy meant to me? How can one describe a visit with a queen or a trip to Paradise? She was the most unselfish, understanding, and self-sacrificing person I have ever met.

We all love her, we all miss her, and while we will glance with sadness at the empty place at our lunch table, I know she's just gone to a new home where there is no fear and no pain, no sorrow, no despair, and no unhappiness. We know she's there, snuggled up in His arms. She holds a place which even a king must envy.

We all know what words cannot express. "May the angels take you into Paradise; may the martyrs come to welcome you on your way." Good-bye Kathy, Good-bye.

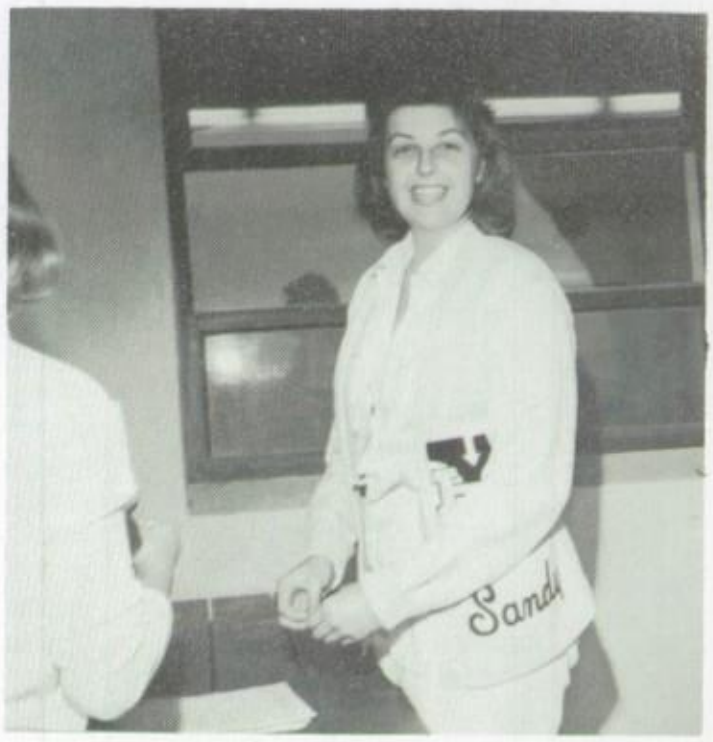
Xavier offers a variety of activities for those girls who are sportsminded. Here we have Xavier's championship volleyball team, proud winners of the city C.Y.O. tournament and recipients of the Participation Trophy.



Sandy Fitzgerald seems very happy about something. Could be that her team just won the game.

G.A.A. initiation featured the scrubbing of the pool with toothbrushes, no less! Those initiates are really industrious!

Archery is one sport enjoyed by Xavierites. The school has placed very well in the various meets held here in Phoenix.

Basket! Juniors and seniors participate in the sport so popular at X.H.S. Teams have shown much spirit in this year's competition.

Tennis is another favorite sport. Mrs. Eleanor Davey points out to the girls some of the finer aspects of the backhand stroke.

A lively volleyball game during physical education class is enjoyed by all. Some of these girls are aspirants to the school team, no doubt.

Movie time with friend Marcella Owens is fun for Illse. Wonder what was playing?

Tacos, tortillas and chile rellenos are more than just good, Ilse will affirm. She and other Xaverites, Margaret Wielt, Marcella Owens, and Jan Stuart seems to be enjoying their dinner.

The civics assignment is not all Ilse seems to be discussing on the telephone. She is a typical teenager when it comes to phone calls.

ADVERTISEMENTS

As editor of the XAVIERIAN 1959 I wish to extend my sincerest gratitude to those persons without whose help this annual would not have been possible.

The thanks of the entire staff is extended to Sister Mary Walter, BVM, for her patience with us and her encouragement.

I wish to thank the annual staff who, for countless hours, worked to perfect the book. At this same time I wish to express my gratitude to Mrs. Catherine Meibert whose patience, guidance and knowledge gave us the foundation for our entire work.

To Cecelia Muller, Business manager, who labored endlessly on the advertising end of this production goes my personal admiration and thanks

I wish also to thank the staff photographer, Eddie Deuel, Father Charles McKee, and Sister Mary Frances Cabrini, BVM, who sacrificed their time and added their talents to the production of this year's XAVIERIAN.

To Mr. Milton Bean of the Arizona Yearbook Company, goes my special thanks for his helpful suggestions, and great patience.

Specializing in Automobile "ALL RISK" Insurance

Ages 16 through 80 years of age. If you have been refused Insurance SEE US. Insurance on minor drivers is getting harder to place each day, due to the driving records of teenage drivers. Parents and guardians are financially responsible in the event they are involved in any kind of an accident, and should not let them drive without insurance.

FREE ENTERPRISE

Means Better Times

The job you'll have—the place you'll work—the tools you'll use, are all the result of free enterprise at work. Free enterprise means continuing progress through keen competition. It means a better life; a more challenging future for you.

Business managed companies like Arizona Public Service are proud to be a part of this system; proud to take part in local activities; to pay their fair share of taxes; and to provide good service at a fair price. This is free enterprise at work—working for your future.
